Summer Term Classes starting April and May 2017:
Monday 8th May, Tuesday 25th April, Wednesday 26th April, Thursday 27th April

Dance with our fabulous team of partners at every lesson – we have classes to suit everyone.

Our classes are designed for individuals (male and female) dancing with our team of expert partners. If you are a couple, you are guaranteed to be dancing together.

Please book your place early so that we can make sure we have a partner available for you.

Ballroom and Latin

We continue to run the only classes in London where you are guaranteed to dance with a talented and patient professional partner at every lesson. All of these classes last 1.5 hours so that you have plenty of time to practice.

We run at various levels from complete Beginners up to Advanced which is equivalent to Gold standard. (The Year numbers refer to the number of years that the class has been running).

If you are coming for the first time, we will advise which one is the most suitable depending on your previous experience and you are very welcome to come and visit so we can decide together.

New Class

We are starting a new Beginners Course on Monday evenings at 20:30.

Couples and Men

This course comprises routines that are simple and easy to remember and appropriate for social occasions.

Couples will be guaranteed to dance together but if one of you has to miss the lesson, the person who can come in has the option to come and participate in the class with a team member.

This class is also suitable for Men attending as individuals and they will be partnered with a member of our team.

Wedding First Dance

Whether you want to step onto the dance floor and feel confident with a classic Waltz, or you have got something a bit more adventurous in mind, our expert teachers can help you choreograph and master the whole dance. After all, it is not every day you take to the dance floor with an audience so make the most of it!

Please note that we do not run on a drop in basis, we run courses that run for 15 weeks (Monday for the Summer Term is 12 weeks). Missed lessons are not refundable or transferable to another term. We make no exceptions for holidays of any kind or illness and you are expected to pay for the full term. If you choose to pay at week one and week eight it is on the strict understanding that you will pay for the balance when it is due – there are no exceptions and you will be asked to confirm this when you book.

As a special concession for clients who have paid for the entire term in advance, we offer the opportunity to substitute one group session for a private catch up lesson lasting for one hour in the event that you miss one.
